

JUNE 2024

Flowers Brighten Day for TCMOW clients

For the last 26 years, Floral Accents, a lovely flower shop at the corner of Payne Avenue and Ridge Street in North Tonawanda, has been attuned to projects, events and activities in the Twin Cities and beyond, where the shop might help those planing events.

A close and friendly neighbor to Twin Cities Meals on Wheels, the shop is located at the end of Ridge Street, with TCMOW anchoring the other end of Ridge.

Theresa Morone, founder and owner of the delightful shop has always been ready to help out if needed.

This year, as she has in the past, Theresa prepared special carnations to present to each of TCMOW's women clients for Mother's Day.

"This gift from Theresa was so well received by our clients," Pam Hill said.

"Theresa has given us flowers before and we really appreciate her gifts," Pam explained.

Theresa said she thought of the idea because so many clients live alone or have no family to give them extra gifts like flowers.

"But I don't want the dads to think we've forgotten them," she smiled. "So we'll have special carnations for them on Father's Day which is right around the corner on June 16."

FLOWER POWER: Three people from Twin Cities Meals on Wheels took a few minutes from delivering meals to visit Floral Accents to thank Theresa Morone for her generosity. Looking over flowers are, from left, volunteer Denise Sawatzky, Theresa Morone, owner of Floral Accents; Pam Hill, TCMOW coordinator and Gary Rockenbrock, volunteer.