Saying Goodbye Is Never Easy

Well folks here it is, my final column. This has been very tough to write.

Most of the time I just wing it and write about what ever comes to mind or things that are going on at MOW, but this is kind of different.

It is sad that we won't be here anymore, but it is still a good thing for our clients so this work can continue on uninterrupted.

We have after all been around since 1973 in one place or another feeding our neighbors.

Some of you have followed in family footsteps and served with us and some of you are relatively new.

We've had parents, kids, spouses, and everything in between and I want to thank you all from the bottom of my heart for every last single thing that you did for us and our clients: for every meal you prepared and delivered, every car you parked and every hot dog you sold. All the fund raisers you joyfully helped run and the projects around the building you worked on. We could not have accomplished any of it without you.

As you know I am retiring and I will miss each and every one of you so very much. We had a lot of fun, it was a great ride wasn't it?

I just want you to promise me that you will focus on all the great times we had, fun memories, and silly stuff like the parades that we did, as will I when I look back on this. I will truly miss you all so much...

Love,

....Pam
